

One of your 5
A Day

SPECIAL

#1

Please read fine print

FREE

LOOK!

ECO-FRIENDLY

Enable Cookies

CONTAINS HEALTH BENEFITS

2
FOR
1

*offer subject to change

MADE IN CHINA

UNLIMITED

CHEAP DEALS!

46670-0199

WARNING!

WARNING
may contain nuts

MARKETING ETHICS & SOCIETY

Lynne Eagle &
Stephan Dahl

Code of Conduct

100%
COTTON

ALWAYS
READ THE LABEL

CONTAINS NUDITY

SAVE!

*see terms & conditions

18
AND OVER

ALLERGY ADVICE

HIGHER
CO₂

LOYALTY POINTS

Save!

FREE
LUNCH
FREE
DRINK

MARKETING ETHICS & SOCIETY

SAGE was founded in 1965 by Sara Miller McCune to support the dissemination of usable knowledge by publishing innovative and high-quality research and teaching content. Today, we publish more than 850 journals, including those of more than 300 learned societies, more than 800 new books per year, and a growing range of library products including archives, data, case studies, reports, and video. SAGE remains majority-owned by our founder, and after Sara's lifetime will become owned by a charitable trust that secures our continued independence.

Los Angeles | London | New Delhi | Singapore | Washington DC

MARKETING ETHICS & SOCIETY

*Lynne Eagle &
Stephan Dahl*

 SAGE

Los Angeles | London | New Delhi
Singapore | Washington DC

Los Angeles | London | New Delhi
Singapore | Washington DC

SAGE Publications Ltd
1 Oliver's Yard
55 City Road
London EC1Y 1SP

SAGE Publications Inc.
2455 Teller Road
Thousand Oaks, California 91320

SAGE Publications India Pvt Ltd
B 1/I 1 Mohan Cooperative Industrial Area
Mathura Road
New Delhi 110 044

SAGE Publications Asia-Pacific Pte Ltd
3 Church Street
#10-04 Samsung Hub
Singapore 049483

Editor: Matthew Waters
Editorial assistant: Molly Farrell
Production editor: Sarah Cooke
Marketing manager: Alison Borg
Cover design: Francis Kenney
Typeset by: C&M Digitals (P) Ltd, Chennai, India
Printed and bound in Great Britain by Ashford
Colour Press Ltd

© Lynne Eagle and Stephan Dahl 2015

First published 2015

Apart from any fair dealing for the purposes of research or private study, or criticism or review, as permitted under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act, 1988, this publication may be reproduced, stored or transmitted in any form, or by any means, only with the prior permission in writing of the publishers, or in the case of reprographic reproduction, in accordance with the terms of licences issued by the Copyright Licensing Agency. Enquiries concerning reproduction outside those terms should be sent to the publishers.

All material on the accompanying website can be printed off and photocopied by the purchaser/user of the book. The web material itself may not be reproduced in its entirety for use by others without prior written permission from SAGE. The web material may not be distributed or sold separately from the book without the prior written permission of SAGE. Should anyone wish to use the materials from the website for conference purposes, they would require separate permission from us. All material is © Lynne Eagle and Stephan Dahl, 2015

Library of Congress Control Number: 2014959145

British Library Cataloguing in Publication data

A catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library

ISBN 978-1-44629-661-5
ISBN 978-1-44629-662-2 (pbk)

At SAGE we take sustainability seriously. Most of our products are printed in the UK using FSC papers and boards. When we print overseas we ensure sustainable papers are used as measured by the Egmont grading system. We undertake an annual audit to monitor our sustainability.

Contents

About the Contributors	xii
1 INTRODUCTION TO MARKETING ETHICS	1
Lynne Eagle
Chapter overview	1
Changing nature of ethical criticisms of marketing	2
Standard definitions of marketing	2
The wider economic focus on growth	4
The misuse of GDP data	4
What the focus on sustainability means for marketers and marketing ethics	5
Consumers' roles in sustainability	8
Marketing ethics in the twenty-first century	8
Ethics definitions	9
Link between ethics and religion/values	9
Business ethics	9
Marketing ethics	10
The relationships between ethics, legislation, regulation and self-regulation	11
Legislation	11
Self-regulation effectiveness	12
The example of advertising and obesity	12
Self-regulatory structures: the example of marketing communication	13
Competing theoretical foundations and frameworks	15
Common frameworks	15
Overview of common ethical frameworks	15
Codes of ethics	17
Summary	18
Case study: Product recalls in the auto and other industries	18
2 CRITICISMS OF MARKETING	29
Lynne Eagle, Stephan Dahl and David R. Low
Chapter overview	29
Major 'generic' criticisms of marketing	30
Fostering materialism and unsustainable consumption	30
Deception and manipulation	30
Wasteful strategies	32
The responsibility of business	32

Criticisms of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)	33
Greenwashing	33
Market structures	34
Organisational power	36
House brands versus manufacturer brands	36
Marketing strategies and tactics	37
Market research	37
Big Data	38
Product-related issues	39
Segmentation and targeting-related issues	39
Pricing-related issues	39
Marketing communication/advertising	40
Product placement	41
PR/publicity	44
Selling	44
Summary	45
Case study: Skin lightening products	45
 3 CONTRASTING PERSPECTIVES ON MARKETING	 55
Stephan Dahl and Fannie Yeung
Chapter overview	55
Historical marketing and societal changes	56
Products and claims	56
Target groups and representation	57
Cross-cultural perspectives	59
Normative, relative and communicative approaches	59
Religious marketing perspectives	61
Marketing communications across cultures	62
Appeals and causing offence	63
Gender portrayal	65
Portrayal of 'beauty'	66
Creation of unnecessary needs	67
Summary	68
Case study: Flying the world	68
 4 ETHICAL ISSUES IN MARKETING RELATIONSHIPS	 75
Lynne Eagle and Stephan Dahl
Chapter overview	75
Marketing relationships and relationship marketing	76
Ethical relationship marketing	76
Franchising	76
Retailing and personal selling	77
Implications for sales management	79

Ethical issues in specific sales sectors	80
Pharmaceutical marketing – detailing	80
Direct to consumer advertising of prescription medications	80
Business-to-business marketing (B2B)	80
Ethical issues in supply chain management relationships	81
Retailer dominance	82
Slotting and promotional allowances	82
Multi-level marketing and pyramid selling	83
Fair Trade	84
Controversial tactics	86
Gifts and incentives	86
Ethical issues with ‘bait and switch’ and loss leader tactics	87
Data mining	88
Pricing strategies	89
Summary	90
Case study: Ethical issues in withholding information – lessons from Vioxx	90
5 ETHICS IN NEW MEDIA	100
Stephan Dahl
Chapter overview	100
New media diversity	102
Social media	103
Social media as data sources	106
Traditional uses of new media channels	107
Product placements	107
Behaviourally targeted advertising	109
Location-based marketing	110
Sharing economy	110
Summary	112
Case study: Facebook Beacon project	112
6 ETHICAL CONSUMPTION	117
Stephan Dahl and Nadine Waebning-Orga
Chapter overview	117
Introduction	118
Typology and motives	118
Pious consumption	118
Patriotic consumption	119
Green consumption	119
Socially conscious consumption	119
Responsible consumption	119
Citizenship-based consumption	120
Mindful (integrated) consumption	120

Behaviour	121
Purchase behaviour	121
Theoretical models	125
Economic rational models	125
Norms and beliefs	126
Mixed models	127
Concerns and ethical dilemmas	129
Marketing and consumption as causes	129
Spillover	130
Marketing (and other) ways forward	133
Information provision/labelling	133
Choice editing	133
Social marketing	134
Demarketing	134
Case study: Fair and unionised? The case of Theo Chocolates	135
 7 MARKETING TO YOUNG AND VULNERABLE CONSUMER GROUPS	 141
Stephan Dahl and Lynne Eagle
Chapter overview	141
Non-traditional media forms	142
Advergame brand 'impact'	142
Current concerns	143
Self-regulatory effectiveness	144
Communication theory and advergame effects	144
Subliminal or low involvement processing effects	145
Policy implications	145
Media literacy	147
Commercially sponsored media literacy interventions: evidence regarding effects and effectiveness	148
Other vulnerable groups	150
Elderly	150
Low literate groups	150
Low income groups/'bottom of the pyramid'	151
Summary	151
Case study: Krave cereal	152
 8 PROMOTION OF HARMFUL PRODUCTS	 159
Lynne Eagle, Debra M. Desrochers, Stephan Dahl, Tracey Mahony and David R. Low
Chapter overview	159
Which products can be classified as harmful?	160
Tobacco and its adverse effects	160
Alcohol and its adverse effects	161

Promotion of harmful products	163
Tobacco promotion expenditures	163
Alcohol promotion expenditures	163
Impact of tobacco promotion	164
Impact of alcohol promotion	164
Advertising restrictions	165
Tobacco	165
Alcohol	165
Potential impact of further alcohol advertising restrictions	166
Recent concerns	168
Appeal of social media	169
Use of cartoon characters	169
Games and apps	170
Context-multiple influences	173
Precautionary principle, legal and ethical liabilities	173
Ethical dimensions	174
Targeting vulnerable consumers	175
Summary	176
Case study: Gambling addiction and advertising	176
 9 LIFESTYLE, HEALTH AND PHARMACEUTICAL MARKETING	 189
Mustafa Ebrahimjee, Stephan Dahl and Lynne Eagle
Chapter overview	189
Introduction	190
DTC Advertising	190
Education	191
Informed discussion	191
Increases in diagnosis	192
Increased compliance	192
Diminished time per patient	192
Unnecessary prescription of drugs	192
Withholding information	193
Misinformation	193
Other forms of promotion	193
Pricing	194
OTC drugs	194
Medicalisation	196
Mechanisms of medicalisation	197
Drivers of medicalisation	197
Effects of medicalisation	199
Lifestyle drugs and health tourism	200
Convergence of drugs and surgery	200
Health tourism	200
Summary	201
Case study: PrEP – medicalisation or prevention?	201

10	TOURISM, HERITAGE, CULTURAL, ARTS AND CAUSE-RELATED MARKETING	208
	Lynne Eagle, Tracey Mahony and Stephan Dahl
	Chapter overview	208
	Sector overview	209
	Overview of the tourism industry	209
	Contribution to greenhouse gas emissions	209
	Tourist responsibilities	210
	Impact of tourism activity on environment and 'host' communities	211
	Positive and negative impacts	211
	The tourist perspective and the attitude-behaviour gap impact in tourism	213
	Specific tourism sectors	216
	Volunteer tourism and justice tourism	216
	Sex tourism	217
	Thanatourism/dark tourism	218
	Trophy hunting	219
	Heritage, culture and arts marketing	220
	Other issues in tourism	221
	Accessibility/tourists with disabilities	221
	Cause-related marketing	222
	Cause-related marketing defined	222
	Summary	225
	Case study: PlayPumps	225
11	ETHICS IN SOCIAL MARKETING	235
	Lynne Eagle, Stephan Dahl and David R. Low
	Chapter overview	235
	The nature and scope of social marketing	236
	The iSMA, ESMA and AASM consensus definition of social marketing	236
	Current social marketing focus	238
	What social marketing is not	240
	Health education	240
	Health promotion	241
	Environmental management	241
	Use of financial incentives	241
	Code of ethics or other resources to aid social marketing practice	244
	In search of universal moral values	244
	Examples of social marketing's ethical dimensions	245
	The potential role of a code of ethics or other ethics resources	249
	Relationship to corporate and other professional codes	251
	Competing theoretical foundations and frameworks	251
	Code development and communications	254
	Conclusions regarding ethical guidance	254
	Summary	255
	Case study: White Ribbon Day (WRD)	255

CONTENTS

xi

12	LEGISLATION, REGULATION AND ETHICS	265
	Stephan Dahl and Kathleen Mortimer
	Introduction	265
	Regulation	265
	Self-regulation	266
	Regulation focus	267
	Content and product restrictions	267
	Quantity restrictions	268
	Non-traditional media	269
	Challenge of simultaneous media usage	269
	User-generated media	270
	Cross-border legislation	271
	Alternative approaches	272
	Codes of practice	272
	Media literacy	273
	Demarketing	273
	Summary	273
	Case study: Paddy Power	274
	Glossary	279
	Index	294

About the Contributors

Stephan Dahl is Senior Lecturer in Marketing at Hull University Business School in England and Adjunct Associate Professor of Marketing at James Cook University. His research interests include health and social marketing, cross-cultural marketing and online/social media marketing, and he has published widely in national and international journals as well as authoring a text on Social Media Marketing (Sage, 2015). Dr Dahl's current focus is on the role of social marketing to increase physical activity, online Word of Mouth and marketing, using social networks and marketing green issues.

Debra M. Desrochers is Senior Lecturer in Marketing & Business Strategy at Westminster Business School. Her research focuses on the impact of marketing activities and practices on the consumer, with significant attention on the policy issues surrounding food marketing. She is associate editor of the Journal of Consumer Affairs and on the Editorial Review Board of the Journal of Public Policy & Marketing. Her research has been published in the Journal of Retailing and the Journal of Public Policy & Marketing, and presented at numerous national and international conferences. She has served as a visiting scholar at the Federal Trade Commission and contributed to a research project on children's exposure to television advertising, with a particular emphasis on food advertising.

Lynne Eagle is Professor of Marketing at James Cook University. Her research interests include marketing communication effects and effectiveness, including trans-disciplinary approaches to sustained behaviour change in social marketing/health promotion/environmental protection campaigns; the impact of persuasive communication on children; and the impact of new, emerging and hybrid media forms and preferences and the use of formal and informal communications channels. She has published in a wide range of academic journals, including the Journal of Advertising and European Journal of Marketing, led the development of both Marketing Communications and Social Marketing texts and contributed several book chapters for other texts, as well as writing commissioned social marketing expert papers and presenting numerous research papers at international conferences. She is on the editorial board of several journals.

Mustafa Ebrahimjee is a general practitioner and partner at the Pall Mall Surgery in Leigh-on-Sea, Essex. Dr Ebrahimjee's research interests include the prevention of health problems and pro-active patient engagement, and he has participated in and published on research projects related to physical activity of the elderly and social marketing interventions in these areas. He is also a qualified trainer, teaching future doctors who wish to train as GPs. He brings extensive experience of medical practice both in the UK and abroad, and speaks English, Kiswahili, Gujarati, Hindi and Urdu.

David R. Low is Dean of the College of Business, Law and Governance and Professor of Business at James Cook University. He has a wide variety of both industry and academic senior management and boardroom experience. His research interests include cross cultural issues; country of origin studies; ethnicity, social media, social marketing, market orientation, firm performance and e-marketing; and innovation, SMEs and the use of technology in business value chains. David has recently co-edited a book on E-Novation and Web 2.0.

Tracey Mahony is Lecturer and PhD candidate in the discipline of Marketing at James Cook University. Her research interests focus on the efficacy of regulation of new and emerging electronic media, brand community development and the use of social media in developing economies. She has a wide variety of industry management experience in business and law, has lectured in Accounting, Management and Business Negotiation subjects, and has extensive experience in developing course material for undergraduate and postgraduate students.

Kathleen Mortimer is Associate Professor of Marketing Communications at Northampton Business School, University of Northampton. She is also chair of the Marketing Communications SIG of the Academy of Marketing and Deputy Editor of the Journal of Marketing Communications. Her research focuses on advertising and marketing communications, and she has published widely in numerous scholarly journals, including the European Journal of Marketing, Journal of Services Marketing, Journal of Marketing Communications and Journal of Customer Behaviour.

Nadine Waehning-Orga is Lecturer in Marketing at York St John University. She previously worked and completed her PhD at Hull University. Her research interests include consumer behaviour; cross cultural issues; regional product purchase motives; international marketing; and marketing for SMEs. Her expertise is not just focused on the academic side of businesses; she is also a Managing Director of the international marketing consultancy Initio Marketing (www.initiomarketing.co.uk). Additionally she is a Chartered Marketer and an active member in the local branch.

Fannie Yeung is Lecturer in Marketing at Hull University Business School in England. Her research interests centre on the impact of ethics on consumer behaviour with a particular focus on financial products and services. Her interest in financial products and services stems from her many years of professional experience working with a number of leading multinational organisations in the financial services industry prior to joining academia. Fannie has also worked on a number of consultancy projects for clients both in the UK and overseas.

 LOOK! ***

GET ONLINE FOR MORE

LECTURER RESOURCES

- * POWERPOINT SLIDES PER CHAPTER
- * TUTOR'S MANUAL

STUDENT RESOURCES

- * MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS PER CHAPTER
- * SAGE JOURNAL ARTICLES PER CHAPTER
- * SAGE PINTEREST MARKETING PINS
- * LINK TO AUTHOR BLOG

with companion website

study.sagepub.com/eagle

100%
FREE